

URKRAFT - It Will All Burst

In unhealthy beings evil liquids rise Blossom with running sores and broken ribs from the fists

The laughter of rapists
The hope of the damned Below the one-eyed god the tears of the lambs

The rhythm of the planets
The beating of skulls The shining of the star that will end it all

With careful artistry hands touch upon unknown faces They paint them with all the colours of life to honour our creation

In pointless anger
I clench my fist
There is no rising sun
It is us who bow to it
